

ALOHA from Burma (Myanmar)

December 14, 2003

December was fun. We went caroling with BARS students to the families of MIT (Myanmar Institute of Theology) faculty, staff, BARS (Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies) students. I am going on a mission trip to the southern part of Burma with my students. Before I leave, I want to wish you a Merry Christmas because I will be gone till the end of December. I will be at villages where there is no electricity, phones or e-mails.

It has been great to know that you have been praying for all of us here in Burma. It has been exactly one year on December 11 since I got back to Burma. I just want to say thank you for all your support and prayers. It was hard but I survived with the help from all of you.

The following picture is in Maymyo, northern Burma, in a cornfield.

May God bless you!

Love in Christ,

Lwin Moe
